

Webinar RNBP: «Celebrating STEAM and STEM: Adult service provision in Brent Libraries»

Data: 4 de julho

Hora: 15h - 16h

Sinopse:

The presentation will take you on journey following Brent Libraries progress on STEM and STEAM provision for adults in Brent, a London borough of rich cultural diversity. It will celebrate the achievements but also highlight the challenges of engaging with adults from many cultural backgrounds. Recommendations and suggestions will round off a thought provoking, interesting and informative presentation.

Dinamizadora:

Sarah Smith - Brent Libraries, Arts and Heritage

Sarah is the Libraries Development Manager for Brent Libraries. Her work championing diversity in children's literature is recognised in the panel production of Diverse Voices in 2014. She is a book review judge for Empathy Lab's Read for Empathy Guides for schools. Sarah is responsible for successful funded partnership cultural programming which includes the annual Spine Festival and with Open Book Theatre, drama productions. She is a passionate advocate for the role of libraries in developing science, technology engineering and maths (STEM).

In 2020 Sarah was awarded a British Empire Medal for her services to public libraries in recognition of her achievements. In 2023 she was named as one of the next generation of professionals who will help lead The Library and Information Association sector into a new age of information under the banner Cilip 125. Sarah is Chair of London branch of the Association of Senior Children's and Education Librarians.

Consulte a nossa página dos Webinars para aceder ao formulário de inscrição.

NOTA: Chamamos a atenção para que este Webinar será em inglês.